The HCA de SA HISTORY

The Hispanic Contractors Association de San Antonio (HCA de SA) was organized to promote and support the educational advancement and growth of Small, Minority, Woman & Veteran Owned Business Enterprises.

- We are committed to developing educational, training and networking programs/events and to facilitating needed resources – in order to help our members reach their highest potential in their business endeavors.
- We help our member General Contractors and Project Owners reach or exceed their diversity participation goals by distributing project information and bid invitations.
- The HCA de SA is dedicated to the financial support of those students who are pursuing an education in the construction trades at The Alamo Colleges, and other local colleges.

*The Hispanic Contractors Association
de San Antonio, Inc.
is a 501(c) (3) non-profit organization.
Your donation may be tax deductible under Section 170 of the IRS Code.*
